Doctor's Panel To Discuss Cancer Tuesday

Tuesday evening, March 15, will mark the biggest event of the year for the Men's Club of Temple Menorah. At that time, a symposium on cancer will be presented by a panel of doctors. Members of the panel will include Matthew J. Ellenhorn, M.D., general medicine, moderator; Gene Kaufman, M.D., surgery; Arthur Rich, M.D., pediatrics; Bernard Rivo, M.D., internal medicine; and William Nussbaum, M.D., dermatology.

Each panel member will speak on cancer in relation to his special field of medicine. An analysis will be made of the early detection and treatment of cancer together with information on how the individual can best help his family in early detection of the disease. The audience will be invited to present questions.

The program will be preceded by a Bar-B-Que chicken dinner at the Temple. Cost of the dinner is $1 per person and is by reservation only.

Reservations are being handled by Fred Spangler, FRontier 4-3985. Last day for reservations is Saturday, March 12. Members are invited to bring their wives and friends.

Associate Pastor to Talk Sunday

The Rev. Carl G. Bader, associate pastor of the Alondra Park Methodist church, will speak on the subject, "When God Speaks, What Then?" at the church Sunday—the first Sunday in Lent.

A special covenant service held each year will be conducted at the 9 and 11 a.m. services. All will be invited to participate in the sacrificial sharing program.

Craft Classes For Children, Adults Opening

New craft classes for children and adults are slated to begin this month at the Torrance Arts and Crafts Center, 22730 Lupine Dr., according to Erika Muhl, director.

For children, there will be craft classes meeting at 9:30 a.m.—11 a.m. for 6-9 year olds and 9 through 12 years starting March 19.

Children's puppetry classes are scheduled to begin March 19 at 1 p.m. for both age group.

Both of these classes have a $1 fee per course.

Guild Hosts Minister at Dinner Meet

Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was a special guest at the regular dinner meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the church last week.

Mrs. Doris Tanner reported on the annual mid year rally that was held at the First Methodist Church in Pasadena early in February, and of a visit to Robinson, the home for retired deaconesses and missionaries.

The Guild will conduct a rummage sale at the church on March 25, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., President Katherine Baker announced.

Dates for the "Study of Africa" program were announced by Mrs. Charles Goodale. Mr. and Mrs. John Strom, who were hosts for the first session, are being assisted by Amy Norvell in conducting the study of missions in Africa.

ASSEMBLY OF a mosaic panel for the municipal plunge will continue through March. There is no fee.

A class in mosaics and stained glass for adults will begin at 7:30 p.m. on March 14.

A class in decorative printing and an adult crafts workshop will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays starting March 16. Fee for each of the adult classes of four sessions each is $1.

CREATIONS OF members of the Torrance Recreation Dept.'s arts and crafts program currently are on display at the South Bay shopping Center, 174th and Hawthorne Ave. This display will remain through March 15.

Registration information for any of the craft classes may be obtained by phoning the department offices, at FAirfax 8-4108 or the center at FRontier 5-9142.
